

DENISE DEBARTOLO YORK

Denise DeBartolo York brings a long and distinguished career in sports and business to her role as Co-Chairman of the San Francisco 49ers, where she combines her passion for building a championship team with her commitment to being the best possible business partner and community citizen.

Since Denise's father, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, she has been an integral part of more than three decades of 49ers football, including 44 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. Earlier in her career, Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team. Under her leadership, the Penguins were revitalized and transformed into a championship team, winning the Stanley Cup. She is one of only 12 women to have her name engraved on the Stanley Cup.

A native of Youngstown, OH, Denise has always felt a strong responsibility to support her neighbors and is still very active in her hometown.

MANON RHÉAUME

Manon Rhéaume, "The First Woman of Hockey™," was the first and only female to play in an NHL game with the Tampa Bay Lightning in 1992. She also was the first female to sign a contract to play professional hockey. She played 6 years of professional hockey in the minors.

As a member of Team Canada, Manon helped lead her team to win a Silver Medal at the Olympics in the 1998 Nagano Games - the first year women's hockey was an official sport in the Olympics.

“IT'S NEVER BEEN EASY. BUT I'VE ALWAYS WANTED TO PLAY HOCKEY. I LOVE HOCKEY. I'D RATHER PLAY HOCKEY THAN DO ANYTHING ELSE. IF YOU HAVE THAT KIND OF DESIRE, I THINK YOU CAN ACHIEVE WHAT YOU WANT TO ACHIEVE.”
